

*Mobs have the sway—his dignity is flown
And angry Spectres hover oer his Throne
The fate of war shall crown his arms with shame
And every Age shall execrate his Name*

505. This bloody war cancelled above The fate of war: in 1781 The fate of war shall becomes Whose boldest deeds but.
506. All. from And Tyrants tremble when they hear his name; every Age written and uncancelled beneath future times: in 1781 every Age becomes vice itself.

THE ASSOCIATED FRIENDS

Gifts

The Library has received gifts from the following persons:

Eugene E. Agger	Thomas J. Murray
Charles S. Aitkin, '80	Edna M. Netter
Mrs. Asher Atkinson	Roy F. Nichols, '18
Barnet J. Beyer	Sydney P. Noe, '10
John H. Birss	Mrs. Margaret E. O'Neill
Robert C. Clothier	George A. Osborn, '97
Mrs. Drury W. Cooper	John H. S. Putnam, '13
C. Rexford Davis, '28	Dr. and Mrs. John H. Raven
Hiram E. Deats	Louis F. Ruf, '85
W. H. S. Demarest, '83	Franklin S. Smith, '84
Clayton M. Hall	Emory P. Starke
Samuel D. Hoffman, '21	Charles W. Stevens, Jr., '02
Rudolf Kirk	John L. Stillwell, '79
William H. Kirk	Frank H. Stobaeus, '08
Louis H. Koch	Agnes W. Storer
I. Robert Kriendler, '36	Hobart E. Studley, '93
Robert B. Littell, '95	Charles T. Thompson, '08
Millard L. Lowery	Percival Wilde
Albert E. Meder, Jr.	Ralph G. Wright
Richard Morris, '99

New Members

With the addition of the two new members whose names are listed below, the membership of the Associated Friends stands at 380.

George W. Higgins, '39

Joseph Cohen, '44